

Dachau

Concentration Camp

The former concentration camp (1933 - 1945) is now officially known as the Dachau Concentration Camp Memorial Site (1965).

This is the best maintained camp and therefore well worth the trip.

Site admission is free and visitor services include:

- a 22 minute documentary film
(10:00 a.m.; 11:30 a.m.; 12:30 p.m.; 2:00 p.m. & 3:00 p.m.),
- access to the grounds & memorials, as well as
- comprehensive exhibitions & museum.

Audio guides are available for 3,50€/2,50€ for students and includes an informative map of the area. Highly recommended.

&/or the on-site 2.5 hours tour available for 3€ (11:00 a.m. & 1:00 p.m.)

Note: Registration is at the information desk of the Visitors' Center.

Buy your tickets at least 15 minutes in advance (Max.: 30 people)
